

WINNERS IN THE WASHINGTON HERALD BASEBALL CONTEST ARE ANNOUNCED

Popular Fans Will See the World Series Games at Philadelphia Without Costing Them a Penny.

Plate Printer at Bureau Hailed as Champion of All Champion Rooters—Friends Casting 25,000 Votes to His Credit on Final Day.

To-day The Washington Herald prints the names of the ten most popular baseball fans in the Capital who have battled in a merry race for leading honors in the most successful contest ever held by a newspaper in this city.

These ten men, whose friends have struggled hard to place them in the front, will witness the first two games of the world's series at Philadelphia October 17 and 18, and will go to the Quaker City as guests of The Washington Herald.

Nearly 900,000 votes were cast in the contest.

William H. McCauley, who was nominated for honors at the very start of the race, has been proclaimed Washington's champion of all champion diamond rooters. On the final day, when the votes came in in torrents, the McCauley supporters came across with 25,000 and put their candidate at the top, leading his nearest rival, William J.
Donovan, by 2,044.

BUREAU'S GREATEST FAN.
McCauley has always held the distinction of being the greatest fan at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, where his many friends have kept up a continual round of coupon clipping during the day and night.

Although a strong factor in the race at all times, the Donovan brigade made a great rally at the finish, and placed their man in second place, ahead of Fred E.
Siebold, who set the pace for the greater part of the contest, Siebold's total being 52,412. Mr. Siebold is a well-known lunchroom man, and was given the hearty support of hundreds of Herald readers.

Bundles of votes, amounting to nearly 31,000 cast on the last day, showed Thomas J. Leonard into fourth place with a total of 51,226. Mr. Leonard conducts a large restaurant in Anacostia, and every resident of that section worked for his success.

The other contestants whose entry has been crowned with glory are Philip E.
Baker, of the Government Printing office; Richard L. Edwards, a well-known insurance man; Joseph Burrows, employed at the Navy Yard; W. E. Fookes, considered Ham Adams' right hand lieutenant; Arthur Langley, who wasn't any slouch as a first baser in the old days and who now claims he sells the best butter and eggs in Washington; and Dan Quill, of the Navy Yard foundry shop, whose fellow workmen tried to corner all the Herald's at the Navy Yard.

UNANIMOUS IN PRAISE.
Letters from the successful contestants, near successful ones and also-rans who never lost interest for a moment have been received in great numbers by the contest editor, and all are unanimous in their praise for the manner in which the race has been conducted, and voice their thanks in glowing terms for the treatment they have received.

Confident that he would be one of the winners, William H. McCauley sent the following letter which speaks for itself.

The letter follows:

Contest Editor The Washington Herald,
I wish to express my thanks for the courteous and fair treatment which I have received in this "baseball contest," and, through your paper, I will attempt to thank my friends who have so enthusiastically rallied to my support.

It is pleasing to know that there are many who, although not personally approached by me, have in a friendly manner contributed their efforts to place me in the position in the contest which it is my good fortune to hold. Very respectfully, WILLIAM H. McCAULEY.

Other letters follow:
Contest Editor The Washington Herald:
Permit me to express, through the columns of your paper, my heartfelt thanks and appreciation to my Anacostia friends who came so nobly and consistently to my support, and by whose efforts I am one of the lucky ten to see the first two games of the world's series.

I also want to congratulate you on the splendid manner in which the contest was handled, the con-

THOMAS J. LEONARD,
Anacostia, D. C.

Contest Editor The Washington Herald:
I desire, through the courtesy of your paper, to extend my heartfelt thanks to my wide circle of friends who have made it possible for me to witness part of the world's series baseball games by way of the trips so generously given by The Washington Herald to the winners of the contest.

Having that many of my friends will also enjoy the games, I remain very truly yours, PHILIP E. BAKER.

Contest Editor The Washington Herald:
I want to thank one and all who had my interest at heart for their efforts in helping me to make such a good showing. I also want to thank The Washington Herald for its fair treatment during the contest. Hoping that it in the future they should ever have another contest it will be as successful as this one.

Contest Editor The Washington Herald:
I wish to extend my thanks to my friends for the assistance they have given me in this baseball contest, and also to The Washington Herald for their fair treatment. I must say that it was one of the best contests ever given by a newspaper in Washington.

I know that I will enjoy my trip to Philadelphia with the other winners.

WILLIAM J. DONOVAN.

Contest Editor The Washington Herald:
It gives me much pleasure to thank my many friends through the columns of The Washington Herald for the generous support they have given me, and I wish to give my indorsement to the excellent manner in which the contest has been conducted.

Please say for me that I will be right there on the spot with plenty of lung power next Monday and Tuesday. Sincerely, JOSEPH BURROWS.

Bible Class Elects Officers.
At the meeting last night of the Brotherhood Bible Class of the McKendree Sunday school, J. Louis Franz was elected president, C. F. Creswell, vice president; F. F. Varney, secretary, and W. M.
Crosby, treasurer. A. E. Miller, R. J.
Bell, Superintendent Israel, Rev. Mr. Mo-bray, C. S. Montague, and Mr. Schnage took part in the discussions. Refreshments and a social hour were enjoyed.

CHANGES MADE IN STAFF.

Commander Roach Announces List of Appointments.
Commander William H. Roach, who succeeds Capt. J. Walter Mitchell as head of the Army and Navy Union of the District, has announced the following appointments to his staff:

Aides de camp, William H. Meilach and William Pencock; chief of staff, Otto Sontag, Jr.; adjutant general, J. C. Jorgenson; inspector general, Lemuel Fugitt; judge advocate general, Anson E.
Taylor; chief quartermaster general, N. W.
Tryon; chief commissary, Edward Hain; chief surgeon, Charles V. Pettes; chief paymaster, Henry B. Bennett; executive council, Commanders Otto Sontag, Lemuel Fugitt, Thomas A. Green, George R. Garnett, and Samuel T. Henry.
Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, U. S. A., was recently admitted as a member of President's Own Garrison, of the Army and Navy Union, where President Taft and former President Roosevelt are also enrolled.

FAVOR ANNUAL REVIEW.

Assistant Assessors Make Recommendation to Commissioners.
The board of assistant assessors recommended yesterday, in a report to the Commissioners, an annual review of the tax assessments in the District.

It was also suggested that two men be appointed who can give all their time to valuing real estate in the District. Values change constantly and cannot be handled under the present system.
Commissioner Rudolph requested the report from the board of the assistant assessors, believing that the present three years' rule of valuation did not meet the situation. He believes that taxes cannot be equalized without statistical material relating to real estate values.

The board suggests in their report that such data would be of immediate and continuous value to the business community, in that it would enable the vendor and purchaser to arrive at accurate values, reached now only after delays.

CHOLERA IN CONTROL

United States Expert Reports Conditions in Italy.

NO GERMS ESCAPE, HE SAYS

Every Emigrant Examined Before Leaving Country and None Found to Be Infected—Conditions Growing Brighter, Declares Dr. Ged-dings to Dr. Wyman.

Dr. Walter Wyman, supervising surgeon general of the United States Marine Hospital Service received advices yesterday from Dr. Geddings, the United States cholera expert in Italy, covering conditions up to September 19.

There have been no suspicious cases among those embarking or awaiting em-barcation," says Dr. Geddings. "Examinations have been made of 150 individuals coming from infected districts and held under observation upon the quarantine ship, and not a single bacillus carrier has been found. These emigrants were destined not only for the United States but also for points in South America."

Epidemic on Decrease.
Commenting on the reduction in the number of cases shown by the reports for the week ended September 17 from those of the week before, Dr. Geddings says:

"The improvement in the condition is evident from the figures. Centers of infection are gradually being cleaned up and eliminated and the number of cases is diminishing.

"In Trani the epidemic is reported to be on the decline. The cities of Ruvo and Bitonto have been declared free from cholera. Great difficulty is experienced in the eradication of the infection from Barietta, where several cases are daily reported. Disinfection is carefully carried on in the streets, and especially in two wards of the city, one of which is inhabited by fishermen, the other by peasants.

"The condition in Naples continues unsatisfactory, but, I think, shows an improvement over that reported last week.
In a general way, it may be said that the cases of gastro-enteritis are fewer in number, and that the mortality from them is not so pronounced.

Hopeful Aspect Continues.
"The hopeful feature of the absence of secondary cases in houses and families where primary ones have occurred continues.

"The detention upon the quarantine ship of persons from the infected districts continues. No suspicious cases have occurred, and bacteriological examinations have failed to reveal the occurrence of a single 'bacillus carrier.'"

Concerning the precautions observed on Italian steamships, Dr. Geddings reports by mail under date of September 17:

"As a rule, vessels from Genoa arrive at Naples in the early morning, take on their passengers and cargo, and sail for the United States."

NEW ORLEANS HEADQUARTERS.

Advance Guard of Exposition Boomers Arrive in Washington.

The World's Panama Exposition Company, of New Orleans, the "logical point," established headquarters yesterday afternoon at the New Ebbitt Hotel, a large suite of rooms having been engaged for the Congressional session. Mr. F. D.
Armstrong, the special representative of the New Orleans company, and H. C.
McCarthy, his assistant, arrived in Washington several days ago and have been looking around for suitable quarters.
They made their decision yesterday, and now their campaign will be started. New Orleans has been very busy during the summer months, and when Congress meets in December that city will present a very strong following. The campaign has been a quiet but very thorough one, and the archives show a long list of members of both branches of Congress who have recorded themselves as favoring the city at the mouth of the Mississippi River.

BOOKER T'S SECRETARY HERE.

Says Colored Educator Will Tour
North Carolina.

Emmett J. Scott, private secretary to Booker T. Washington, and recently a member of the United States commission to investigate social, political, and industrial conditions in the Liberian Republic, arrived yesterday. He conferred with President Taft at Beverly on Thursday, in company with Collector Charles W. Anderson, of New York, and Assistant United States District Attorney James A. Cobb.

Booker T. Washington will make an "educational pilgrimage" through North Carolina, starting at Charlotte October 25. The tour will cover eight days, and every important city will be visited, where there is a considerable negro population. The object will be to stimulate the colored people to a higher sense of education, industry, reliability, and morality, and to promote a spirit of sympathetic co-operation between the races.
The tour will be under the general direction of Bishop George W. Clinton, of the A. M. E. Zion Church, and is fostered by the Tuskegee educator through Mississippi, Arkansas, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, and Delaware.

Census Figures of Yesterday.

The Census Bureau yesterday announced the population of Orange, N. J., as 29,530 in 1910, as compared with 24, 141 in 1900, an increase of 22 per cent.
The population of San Diego, Cal., was placed at 58,573 in 1910, as compared with 47,700 in 1900, an increase of 23 per cent., and the population of Wichita, Kan., was given as 32,450 in 1910, as against 24, 671 in 1900, a gain of 32 per cent.

K. O. P. TO OPEN SHOW.

Will Be in Charge Initial Night of Householders' Exhibit.

Pythians of Washington will be in charge of the National Manufacturers' and Householders' Show at Convention Hall on the opening night, October 21.
Washington Company No. 1, U. R. K. P., is in charge of arrangements for the night.

Other organizations will have a "night" during the show, among those who will participate being the Red Men, the Patriotic Order Sons of America, the Spanish War Veterans, the G. A. R., and other societies. A German-Irish night will be given November 3.

New Bank Charter.
The Comptroller of the Currency yesterday issued a charter to the "National Bank of North Hudson," at West Hudson, N. J., capital, $100,000. George B.
Bergkamp is president; John J. McMahon, first vice president; Otto Kaegbehn, second vice president, and Howell S. Bonnet, cashier. The charter of the National Security Bank of Philadelphia, was extended for another twenty years.

THREE WILLS FILED.

Andrew Warren Bequeaths $50,000 to American Bible Society.

Andrew Warren, an aged bachelor, in his will, executed November 16, 1907, bequeaths $50,000 to the American Bible Society to be used by the Boston auxiliary society exclusively. The Boston society is also named executor.

The will of Rev. John Chester, who died October 4, leaves $5,000 to his wife, Mrs. Ella Muir Chester, and one-third of the estate each to William Chester and John Chester, his sons, and the remainder to grandchildren. William Chester, Jr., is named as executor.

By the will of Miss Catherine Brennan, who died October 3, her estate is divided as follows: John D. Brennan, a brother, $2,500; Francis Herbert Muzzy, a nephew, $1,000; Mrs. Annie F. Muzzy, a sister, $1,000, and Lawrence and Michael Brennan, brothers, $50 each.

members and those going to or from work to ride on street cars.

G. O. P. QUARTERS OPENED.

House-warming Postponed on Account of the Weather.

The League of State Republican Clubs formally opened its new campaign headquarters, 1249 Pennsylvania avenue, last evening. Owing to the weather, the "house-warming" was postponed, and the turn-out of members was limited.

At the meeting of the executive committee, a ways and means committee to take charge of campaign matters was appointed, comprising the following: E.
C. Snyder, chairman; T. Lincoln Townsend, vice chairman; and Gus A. Schuldt, secretary.

A discussion of the railroad rates offered to voters by the Washington Terminal lines of the Trunk Line Association followed. It is the aim of the league to send every Republican voter in Washington to his home polls in November, and a stirring campaign will be inaugurated to this end.
